MEDIATION EXPERIENCE

• Mediation Style:

While I have no experience acting as a mediator, in previous negotiations during arbitration and litigation cases, I did not focus solely on legal issues or understand the case only from a legal standpoint. Instead, I sought to comprehend the substantial reasons leading to the dispute, the tangible economic benefits both parties could gain from resolving the dispute, and the practical benefits of future cooperation. I aimed to find dispute resolution methods from a comprehensive perspective, considering all these factors.

• Mediation Institutions Enlisted as a Mediator:

None

• Others (related experience with international mediation):

I possess substantial experience serving as counsel and arbitrator in both international and domestic arbitration cases, where I have conducted numerous negotiations aimed at achieving amicable settlements. Additionally, my role as counsel in civil litigation and civil mediation cases within Korean courts has further honed my skills in negotiating and securing amicable resolutions.
